

MALAWI DATA SUMMIT 2022

Harnessing Data and Technology to Enhance Humanitarian Response and Community Resilience

Day 2: New Data Approaches for Sustainable Development

3 June 2022

Opening Second Day

9:00 a.m. Moderator
DoDMA

Conference 1: AI and Ethical Boundaries

9:05 a.m. Nuria Oliver - Scientific Director & Co-Founder
ELLIS Alicante Foundation

Conference 2: Informing Planning, Policy and Service Delivery for District and National Development Priorities

10:05 a.m. Mercy Chirambo - Program Analyst
UNDP Malawi

Conference 3: Data for Decision-making Support

10:30 a.m. Richard Phiri -Principal Statistician
Lusungu Chisesa - Statistician / Data manager
National Statistics Office of Malawi

Conference 4: Geospatial M&E (Harnessing Remote Sensing to Evaluate Project Impacts in Strengthening Community Resilience)

11:10 a.m. Margaret Mugo - Geo-Information and Knowledge Management
FAO Malawi

Conference 5: Using Mobile Operator Data for Sustainable Development

11:35 a.m. Xavier Vollenweider - Director of Mobile Data Partnerships
Flowminder

Conference 6: Open Data Cubes for Urban, Environmental and Agricultural Applications

12:15 p.m. Victor Mackenhauer Olsen - Remote Sensing / GIS Developer
iMMAP

Panel: Strengths and Weaknesses of Malawi's Data Ecosystem for Development and Humanitarian Response

12:45 p.m. Victor Ohuruogu - Senior Africa Regional Manager
Global Partnership for Sustainable Development Data - GPSDD
Lizzie Chikoti - Acting Commissioner of Statistics
National Statistics Office of Malawi
Dalitso Kafumbata
University of Malawi
Patricia Khomani - Program Manager
Cooper/Smith
Andrés Clavijo - Economist and Data Strategist
iMMAP Colombia

Wrap-up

1:35 p.m. Christophe Bois - President
iMMAP France

1:45 p.m. Concluding remarks day 2

AGENDA

USAID
FROM THE AMERICAN PEOPLE

Better Data
Better Decisions
Better Outcomes

UNITED NATIONS
MALAWI

